Historic Hat Creek Ranch 2010 Educational Program – Reservation Information

The following steps will assist you with the completion of our Reservation Form:

1. Review the enclosed material to determine which package best meets your group's particular needs, curriculum, and time frame.
2. Decide which activities you would like to choose under the package you selected
3. If you are staying overnight, decide which accommodation you prefer:

Miners' Tents and Teepees:

2 canvas Miners Tents (Sleep 6 each); 2 Teepees (sleep 6-8 each)

Own mattresses and sleeping bags required. Washroom facilities and restaurant close-by

Kekuli

Native pit house, built half above and half under ground; sleeps approx 20-25 people. Located about ¼ mile from the main ranch buildings. Sweat Lodge, fire pit, storage shed and outhouses are at the Kekuli site; full washroom facilities and restaurant at main Ranch Building. Own mattresses and sleeping bags required.

Cabins:

2 cabins sleep up to 8 people per cabin, on 3 single bunk beds and a double futon. Another 2 cabins sleep up to 6 people per cabin; these cabins have a separate bedroom with a queen-size bed, a front room with a single bunk bed and a double futon, as well as a private bathroom. Own sleeping bags required for bunk bed and futon. Please note that cabin accommodation is $10.00 extra per person, per night.

If your group is too big to fit into one type of accommodation, you may divide the group into two, and have one half (e.g. female student) stay in the Kekuli, the other half (e.g. male students) in the Miners' Tents & Teepees.

4. Complete the reservation form and sign it.
5. Determine the amount due for your group on the enclosed payment form.
Please note: for every 10 students, your group will receive 1 free teacher/chaperone.
6. Return reservation and payment forms together with your deposit by fax or mail to:
Historic Hat Creek Ranch, P.O. Box 878, Cache Creek BC, V0K 1H0
Fax No. (250) 457-9311
